

African spirit

The renowned British-Nigerian artist Yinka Shonibare CBE RA and project architect India Mahdavi transformed the iconic London venue sketch with a new installation of artworks and interiors. Shonibare's artist-conceived vision for the Gallery restaurant is presented with a new sunshine-yellow setting designed by Mahdavi, marking a new culture-defining chapter for sketch in its 20th year. Shonibare has created 15 new site-specific works in his signature aesthetic that will reimagine sketch into a powerful celebration of African culture and its legacy.

Address: 9 Conduit St, W1S 2XG - London, UK

www.india-mahdavi.com

Interactive toy

Designed by Dmytro Kozinenko for Woo Furniture, the new Loop has an asymmetric shape and three fulcrums. It is an accent eye-catching object that is always a focal point of the space. Two round discs are turned perpendicular to each other. There is no seatback on the original meaning, but you can find your own way to sit on it.

www.woo.furniture

Fun mix

Puntofilipino designed the interiors of Volgare in Milan: an eclectic menswear store combining the latest fashion with motorbike accessories. Volgare's interiors draw inspiration from the "creative scene" of the city as well as the colors and shapes of Mexican, Moroccan, Spanish and Portuguese design. It features a multifaceted mix of organic tones and textures, iconic Amalfi coastal lifestyle, due to the mix of eras, materials, patterns and colors in a bold way.

www.puntofilipino.com